ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

To apply to Lakeland University Japan, applicants must meet ONE of the following requirements:

- 1. Have graduated or will graduate from a secondary school (High School or a total of 12 years of education)
- 2. Have a Secondary School Graduate Equivalent Certificate (GED)
- 3. Have completed the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program*

* Level 1B and score of 4 or higher. Students can gain 30 semester hours of credits.

Students from countries whose education, including secondary school, is less than 12 years need to have their education qualifications evaluated individually. Lakeland University Japan (LUJ) currently offers two types of programs at the Japan Campus: The Undergraduate Program, and the English for Academic Purposes (EAP) Program. These programs are open to both Japanese and International students.

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM

The Undergraduate Program is for degree-seeking students. The courses in this program follow the curriculum of a typical American Liberal Arts education. Students who wish to enter this program must fulfill one of the following conditions:

- 1. Their native language is English or they have graduated from an international high school with an English based curriculum.
- OR
- 2. They have an English proficiency of at least TOEFL ITP 500, iBT* 61, IELTS 6, Oxford ELLT 6, and Duolingo scores of 100 or higher. TOEFL/IELTS/Duolingo will be exempt if students have transferred credits of 30 semester hours from a U.S. institution and a GPA of 2.0 or higher from another college or university in an English speaking country, or an Acceptable GCE Ordinary or Advanced Level results or acceptable WAEC test results.

*TOEFL school code: 8962 Duolingo: search for Lakeland University Japan as institution.

ENGLISH FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES [EAP] PROGRAM

The English for Academic Purposes (EAP) is an intensive program designed to bring focus and attention to the various skills, both language and study, needed to succeed at an American university. After completing the EAP Program, 12 college credits will be transferable towards their Lakeland degree.

There are 5 levels in total. Which level you start at will be determined by your current level of English.

The EAP Levels:

"The lowest level (HB) covers basics like simple sentences and easy conversation. The highest level (LA) covers essay writing and critical discussion."

► IN MORE DETAIL

Please complete the Online Application form, which can be found on our LUJ website under “Apply” or by the QR code.

► OFFICIAL SCHOOL TRANSCRIPTS - IN ENGLISH

An official English transcript from the accredited high school and/or university/college where you are currently studying (or have already graduated from). This includes military transcripts. If you are/ were enrolled in a Japanese language school, please submit the grades and attendance report.

If you have 12 credits or more in higher education, you do not need to provide high school transcripts.

For official transcripts and scores:

- American - please send them in either two methods; emailed by your school, or through a digital credential service, such as Parchment (enter admissions@japan.lakeland.edu as the receiver), National Student ClearingHouse, etc. If you have AP or SAT scores, please submit them through College Board - SAT, AP
- Non-American - please send them through a digital credential service - please use ECE link 10% disc or WES
- In Japan - please send them in either two methods; mailed to our address in Japan in a sealed envelope or emailed by your school (UNLESS they are College/University transcripts - please use ECE link 10% disc.)

Note: Any official transcripts cannot be sent by the applicant themselves.

For ECE reports, please select “general” report for high school or “course by course” report for GCSE, A-Levels, & college/ University

The evaluation can take several weeks to complete, so please plan accordingly - see page 8

► CERTIFICATE OF HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION OR A COPY OF YOUR DIPLOMA

You must submit a certificate of graduation or a copy of your high school diploma in English. If you apply prior to your high school graduation, please submit a letter with your anticipated graduation date (in English).

Note: An Application for Admission may be submitted at any time after the successful completion of the junior year of secondary school.

► REQUIRED ENGLISH PROFICIENCY TEST SCORES FOR NON-NATIVE ENGLISH SPEAKERS

For applicants who graduated from a non-English curriculum based high school:

- EAP - applicants must be able to write basic sentences and hold a basic conversation in English. Scores provided will be used to determine EAP starting levels.
- Undergraduate - an official TOEFL score of iTP 500, iBT 61, IELTS 6, Oxford ELLT 6, or Duolingo 100 taken within 1 year is required for direct entry.
- Postgraduate - an official TOEFL score of iTP 550, iBT 80, IELTS 7, or Duolingo 130 taken within 1 year is required for direct entry, or if you have obtained your bachelor degree from a U.S. institution or other English-based institution with a GPA of 2.75 or higher.

► PERSONAL STATEMENT OF PURPOSE -TYPED, WRITTEN IN ENGLISH, 300-400 WORDS

In this statement you must introduce yourself and your previous education background, as well as your future educational and career goals and interests. Explain why you would like to enter LUJ, and add any other information you think is relevant.

► LETTER OF REFERENCE

This letter should be written by a former or current teacher, guidance counselor, professor, or employer. It must include their reasons why you would be a good candidate for our program. We will not accept letters written by family members or friends. This letter must be in English, with the exception of Japanese language school instructors or counselors, and can be emailed directly to the admissions office (admissions@japan.lakeland.edu) in either pdf, word, or direct email format.

For postgraduate applications, an official template must be used. This will be provided by the admissions team.

► PASSPORT / JAPANESE RESIDENCE CARD

Send a copy of the pages of your passport that include your legal name, birth date, passport number, and pictures, along with past entry stamp pages to and from Japan. If you are already in Japan on a current visa, send a copy of the front and back of your residence card.

► INTERVIEW REQUIREMENTS

Students who are applying to the undergraduate or postgraduate program are required to participate in an official interview.

Acceptance will be determined by the application document review and interview results.

TRANSFER ADMISSIONS

Lakeland has a generous transfer credit from previous institutions policy, accepting up to:

- 45 credits for the A.A. degree
- 90 credits for the B.A. degree
- 9 credits for the postgraduate degrees.

- If you are transferring to LUJ from another college, only courses similar to those offered at LUJ will be transferable. Moreover, you must have earned a grade of “C” or better for your credits to transfer.
- All work completed at other colleges will be converted to semester hours when evaluating transferable credits, as to make it match with LUJ’s three-credit-based curriculum.*
- You will start with a new GPA when you enter LUJ; grades earned at other colleges will not be included in your new GPA.
- If you transfer to LUJ with 30 or more credits earned at another college or university, you will be exempt from LUJ’s Interdisciplinary Studies Requirement (also called “Core 1”).
- Transfer courses must have been taken within 10 years prior to application to the graduate program.

 “You are also exempt from submitting your high school transcripts if you have 12 or more credits.”
~ Admissions Team

FOR NON-US TRANSCRIPTS

For students who have transcripts from colleges or universities that are non-U.S., Educational Credential Evaluators, Inc. (ECE) reviews educational achievements by individuals from other countries and converts them to the U.S. system for purposes of studying or working in the U.S.

<https://accounts.ece.org/TPO/LUJ-RF>

5 Easy Steps to Apply

1. Create an account.
2. Select “course by course” report
3. Determine what documents you’ll need to submit. Choose your country of education from the list provided.
4. Order a report, submit payment, and send ECE your documents. \
5. ECE will send an official course report to us digitally and also to you in a sealed envelope.

 “Ask us about the 10% discount code for all ECE applications!”
~ Admissions Team

Please submit your transcripts during the application process.

The personnel in the Office of the Registrar at Lakeland University in Wisconsin will make all decisions relating to transfer credits.*

FINANCIAL AID & MILITARY BENEFITS

► FINANCIAL AID - Non-U.S. Citizens

We recommend reaching out to your embassy in your home country for any scholarships available to study abroad. We also accept students with financial aid through independent organizations.

The following companies have been used by both our Japanese and international students:

- Japan Student Services Organization [JASSO]
- Orico
- Rakuten
- Japan Finance Corporation [JFO]

► FINANCIAL AID - U.S. Citizens

For those students with US citizenship or eligible non-citizens, you may apply for Financial Aid through our main campus, Lakeland University Wisconsin. Students must be registered with the Selective Service (if male), demonstrate financial need as determined by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and be officially accepted as an undergraduate student at Lakeland University Japan. You can find more information here: <https://lakeland.edu/traditional-undergraduate-financial-aid/checklist>

► U.S. MILITARY AND VETERANS' BENEFITS

Lakeland University Japan is dedicated to serving students who receive military benefits by providing timely and accurate information prior to and during a student's enrollment at the college.

Benefit programs include:

- Chapter 33 (Post 9/11 Bill™/Yellow Ribbon)
- Montgomery GI Bill™ - Chapter 30
- Tuition Assistance
- Chapter 31
- Chapter 35

If you are unsure of your eligibility for benefits, please contact your local VA Service Office by visiting gibill.va.gov or call the GI Bill™ Call Center at 1-888-GIBILL-1. Once you are certain of your eligibility, you can visit www.gibill.va.gov to apply for your military benefits or to transfer your benefits to LUJ from another college or university. Complete all pertinent forms, and submit them. You can find more information here: <https://lakeland.edu/military-benefits>

Things to Remember

- Plan on not receiving your MAH (Monthly Allowance for Housing) for 2-3 months. This does not mean it will take that long, but this is a precautionary measure.
- During the break in-between semesters, you will not receive MAH. You must be actively taking classes to receive MAH.
- Give the VA your bank information to receive your MAH directly into your account. Otherwise, a paper check will take longer to receive.
- Constantly update your address as you move.

Lakeland University Japan cannot determine benefits; only the VA can.
